Many thanks for your letter recommending the appointment of Mr. Overton James to ~~succeed~~ the late Floyd E. Maytubby as Governor of the Chickasaw Nation.

As you know, the authority to make this appointment is vested in the Secretary of the Interior. While I can act only in an advisory capacity if called upon to do so, you may be sure that I will keep your advice in mind.

Your interest in Mr. James is appreciated, and I want to thank you once again for writing in his behalf.

Dear Senator:

Read in the paper the other day of the passing away of Mr Maytubby, which I deeply regret.

Had a letter today from Overton James asking me if I would recommend him for the place Mr Maytubby held.

I have known Mr James for several years he is a fine man has a lot of ability and is a leader of the Indian people. He now holds the positions of President of the Chactaw-Chickashaw confederation and President of Chickasaw Tribal Council.

He is a graduate of Southeastern State College and is now employed by the Draughon School of business.

I would appreciate any consideration he is given.

Yours Very Truly
