Dear Sula:

We have just seen the May 1967 issue of Talking Leaves and have enjoyed it as we do every issue. We were especially pleased with the manner in which you paid tribute to Marie Wadley. The page you devoted to her was certainly well deserved. The idea of the quotes from the report, from Virgil Harrington's letter and from Marie's own words was a great one. I know Marie appreciated it.

Charlie and the staff join me in best wishes.

Sincerely,

CARL ALBERT, M.C.
