Dear Sula:

Thanks for your report on the Dierks' cocktail and dinner party at the Skirvin. I share your disappointment that I couldn't be there.

We had so hoped that the changes there would be for the better. Maybe they will turn out that way after all. Perhaps it is a little early to judge accurately. However, I have so much faith in your intuitions and impressions that this may be wistful thinking on my part.

I was pleased to get your report of the response to Dr. Robertson's letter to the publishers.

We appreciated the clippings. Sid Carney came by our office the other day but we missed him. We wrote him a note telling him how pleased we are that he will be in Anadarko. Now that we are getting some new counties in that area, we likely will be doing quite a bit of business with him.

We also enjoyed your account of your visits to newspapers in Eastern Oklahoma. It brought back a lot of memories to Charlie of when he was with the Oklahoma Press Association and used to visit some of those same newspapers and editors.

Our best always.

Sincerely,

CARL ALBERT, M. C.
