

In my estimation, one of the most important meetings being held this year, as far reaching as the first OHD meeting which I reported to you in detail in 1965.

Doctor Robertson went to a PFA in Miami and told me to send young George D. Rogers to Wagoner in his stead. I suggested he send Dr. Robert Brutsche, his Deputy, or Dr. Walter Deason of Contract Medical Care who is (on side) working on his MPH at Medical School — but Robertson thought me presumptuous.

SUNDAY OKLAHOMAN
OKLAHOMA CITY, OKLAHOMA C
Circ. 293,656
DATE: 2015 07

Lodge to Host Special Health Plans Session

WAGONER — Members of Oklahoma Northeast Inc. will meet October 26 in Western Hills Lodge in a health planning session for the northeastern counties of the state.

James C. Leake, Muskogee, will discuss factors affecting the industrial development of the area.

Expansion Plans Eyed

Dr. Thomas Points, Oklahoma City, director of the health intelligence facility at the University of Oklahoma Medical School, and Wesley Burch, Bartlesville, president of the Oklahoma Hospital Association, will discuss the need for an inventory of health facilities and plans for expansion.

Dr. John Shackleford, Oklahoma City, director of the division of maternal and child health of the Oklahoma State Health Department, and Dr. Jack Robertson, Oklahoma City, Indian health area director for the U. S. Public Health Service, will discuss public and In-

Juror see remember, not mentioned here is the Seay
Medical School alumnae Association. His name should be added to my list to which these are used to check census.

Don Blair, Oklahoma City, executive secretary of the Oklahoma State Medical Association, Bert Castleberry, Oklahoma City, executive director of the Oklahoma State Dental Association, and Cleve Rodgers of Tulsa, executive director of the Oklahoma Hospital Association, will discuss mental, dental and hospital services a community needs.

Future Planning Topic

Dr. James L. Dennis, Oklahoma City, dean of the OU Medical School, Dr. A. B. Colyar, Oklahoma City, commissioner of health, Dr. B. C. Chatham, Chickasha, official of the state central association, Kenneth Hager, Oklahoma City, executive director of Oklahoma Council for Health Careers, and Walter M. Whitlow, Oklahoma City, state health department official, will discuss