

From: Office of Speaker Carl Albert, U. S. Capitol, Washington, D. C. 20515

March 24, 1971

Suggested cutlines for enclosed 4-column

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

ADMIRE PAINTING--Speaker Carl Albert admires the Indian painting done by the outstanding Oklahoma artist, Solomon McCombs, which was presented to him by U. S. Senator and Mrs. Fred R. Harris. The painting, which is done in vivid colors, hangs in Speaker Albert's office. McCombs' work can be found in permanent collections throughout this country and abroad. He won the Waite Phillips Trophy in 1965 for his outstanding contribution to Indian art throughout the years. McCombs is of Creek Indian heritage. Mrs. Harris is of Comanche.

---

From: Office of Speaker Carl Albert, U. S. Capitol, Washington, D. C. 20515

March 24, 1971

Suggested cutlines for enclosed 4-column

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

ADMIRE PAINTING--Speaker Carl Albert admires the Indian painting done by the outstanding Oklahoma artist, Solomon McCombs, which was presented to him by U. S. Senator and Mrs. Fred R. Harris. The painting, which is done in vivid colors, hangs in Speaker Albert's office. McCombs' work can be found in permanent collections throughout this country and abroad. He won the Waite Phillips Trophy in 1965 for his outstanding contribution to Indian art throughout the years. McCombs is of Creek Indian heritage. Mrs. Harris is of Comanche.

---

From: Office of Speaker Carl Albert, U. S. Capitol, Washington, D. C. 20515

March 24, 1971

Suggested cutlines for enclosed 4-column

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

ADMIRE PAINTING--Speaker Carl Albert admires the Indian painting done by the outstanding Oklahoma artist, Solomon McCombs, which was presented to him by U. S. Senator and Mrs. Fred R. Harris. The painting, which is done in vivid colors, hangs in Speaker Albert's office. McCombs' work can be found in permanent collections throughout this country and abroad. He won the Waite Phillips Trophy in 1965 for his outstanding contribution to Indian art throughout the years. McCombs is of Creek Indian heritage. Mrs. Harris is of Comanche.

---

From: Office of Speaker Carl Albert, U. S. Capitol, Washington, D. C. 20515

March 24, 1971

Suggested cutlines for enclosed 4-column

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

ADMIRE PAINTING--Speaker Carl Albert admires the Indian painting done by the outstanding Oklahoma artist, Solomon McCombs, which was presented to him by U. S. Senator and Mrs. Fred R. Harris. The painting, which is done in vivid colors, hangs in Speaker Albert's office. McCombs' work can be found in permanent collections throughout this country and abroad. He won the Waite Phillips Trophy in 1965 for his outstanding contribution to Indian art throughout the years. McCombs is of Creek Indian heritage. Mrs. Harris is of Comanche.

---

O.K.C.

