

FROM: Office of CARL ALBERT (D-Okla.), House Majority Leader, H-148, The Capitol

4-3-68

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

House Majority Leader Carl Albert (D-Okla.) today announced that the first order of legislative business Monday, April 6, when the House reconvenes at noon following the Easter recess will be the consideration of a Joint Resolution to provide funds to supplement the President's Disaster Relief Fund.

Chairman Clarence Cannon (D-Mo.) of the House Committee on Appropriations will introduce the resolution and will ask unanimous consent for its consideration by the House.

As announced earlier, the President will ask Congress to appropriate $50 million, the major portion of which would be to assist in relief work resulting from the devastating earthquake in Alaska, although the fund would not be limited to that state alone.

Hon. Carl Albert, Majority Leader of the House, announced today that the first order of business on Monday, when the House reconvenes following the Easter recess, will be the consideration of a Joint Resolution to provide funds to supplement the President's Disaster Relief Fund.

Chairman Clarence Cannon of the Committee on Appropriations will introduce the resolution as soon as the House meets on Monday and it is hoped that consent will be obtained to consider the resolution forthwith.

As announced earlier, the President will ask Congress to appropriate $50,000,000 the major portion of which would be assist ~~and administer~~ in relief work in Alaska, although the fund would not be limited to ~~that~~ State alone.

FROM: Office of CARL ALBERT (D-Okla.), House Majority Leader, H-148, The Capitol

4-3-64

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

House Majority Leader Carl Albert (D-Okla.) today announced that the first order of legislative business Monday, April 6, when the House reconvenes at noon following the Easter recess will be the consideration of a Joint Resolution to provide funds to supplement the President's Disaster Relief Fund.

Chairman Clarence Cannon (D-Mo.) of the House Committee on Appropriations will introduce the resolution and will ask unanimous consent for its consideration by the House.

As announced earlier, the President will ask Congress to appropriate $50 million, the major portion of which would be to assist in relief work resulting from the devastating earthquake in Alaska, although the fund would not be limited to that state alone.

FROM: Office of CARL ALBERT (D-Okla.), House Majority Leader, H-1148, The Capitol

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

4-3-64

House Majority Leader Carl Albert (D-Okla.) today announced that the first order of legislative business Monday, April 6, when the House reconvenes at noon following the Easter recess will be the consideration of a Joint Resolution to provide funds to supplement the President's Disaster Relief Fund.

Chairman Clarence Cannon (D-Mo.) of the House Committee on Appropriations will introduce the resolution and will ask unanimous consent for its consideration by the House.

As announced earlier, the President will ask Congress to appropriate $50 million, the major portion of which would be to assist in relief work resulting from the devastating earthquake in Alaska, although the fund would not be limited to that state alone.

FROM: Office of CARL ALBERT (D-Okla.), House Majority Leader, H-148, The Capitol

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

House Majority Leader Carl Albert (D-Okla.) today announced that the first order of legislative business Monday, April 6, when the House reconvenes at noon following the Easter recess will be the consideration of a Joint Resolution to provide funds to supplement the President's Disaster Relief Fund.

Chairman Clarence Cannon (D-Mo.) of the House Committee on Appropriations will introduce the resolution and will ask unanimous consent for its consideration by the House.

As announced earlier, the President will ask Congress to appropriate $50 million, the major portion of which would be to assist in relief work resulting from the devastating earthquake in Alaska, although the fund would not be limited to that state alone.