

*File
News Releases*

March 21, 1967

From: Office of Rep. Carl Albert, H. 148, The Capitol, Washington, D. C.

Special to the Broken Bow News

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

MAILED
746
MAY 2 1967
MADE IN U.S.A.

CONGRESSIONAL CONGRATULATIONS-- Miss Wilma Louise Victor, a native of McCurtain county, Oklahoma, receives congratulations from her Congressman, Rep. Carl Albert of McAlester. Miss Victor was one of six winners in the seventh annual Federal Woman's Award chosen from among the more than 600,000 women in government by a panel of five citizens. A member of the Choctaw Indian tribe, she was cited for "exceptional creative and executive ability" in administering a new program for disadvantaged Indian youth--Intermountain Indian School at Brigham City, Utah.

March 21, 1967

From: Office of Rep. Carl Albert, H-148, The Capitol, Washington, D.C.
Special to the McCurtain Gazette

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

GAZETTE READERS--When Miss Wilma Louise Victor of Idabel was in Washington recently to receive an award as one of the nation's top women in government, she visited her Congressman, Rep. Carl Albert. They took time out to look over a copy of the McCurtain Gazette which was on ~~the~~ Third District Congressman's desk. Miss Victor was one of six winners of the seventh annual Federal Woman's Award chosen from among the more than 600,000 women in government. She was cited for "exceptional creative and executive ability" in administering a new program for disadvantaged Indian youth--Intermountain Indian School at Brigham City, Utah.