Washington, D. C. 20515 - April 21, 1967

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

INDIANS IN WASHINGTON -- Congressman Carl Albert, Majority Leader of the U. S. House of Representatives, is surrounded by Indian students from Oklahoma who took time out from sightseeing in the nation's capital to pose on the Capitol steps with the dome in the background. Ranging in age from 12 to 18, the students were from Jones Academy, Seneca and Ruffalo boarding schools operated by the Bureau of Indian Affairs. They were guests of Congressman Albert for lunch after which they saw Congress in session and toured the Capitol.

The Indian students are participants in a Youth Development Project sponsored by Southeastern State College, Durant. Staff members from SSC making the Washington trip included Dr. Leslie Lewis, Project Director, Virginia Heard, John Gecks and Jack Cazelle.
