Dear Sir

Some years ago the Osage Tribe of Indians obtained a judgement against the U.S.
Government - for nearly one million dollars.
Please tell me why this judgement has not been paid. This money is no far more so than the salary of either a Congressman or a Senator. This debt is a direct judgement. The Government is giving away many "Billions of dollars" for useless things and yet refuse to pay an honest debt that is already in the form of a judgement. We say a lot about France, England and other nations for not paying us the money they owe us.

and yet at the same time the Federal Government fails to Pay its own debt to a certain tribe of Indians that in turn has held a judgment for several years. I do notice however. The Senate is willing to Pay this but the House Refuses to Pass it. Please Advise me just why. I'm a member of the Osage Tribe and I am anxious to learn. If I had a Million Dollars I'm sure I wouldn't want to Buy a Bond or any Security issued by our Federal Government. I am afraid they would Refuse to Pay it.

Yours Truly
