CERTIFICATION OF DISPUTES

- SEC. 2. Whenever the Secretary of Labor finds—
- 7 (1) that there is a labor dispute in which the
- 8 agencies of the Government charged with the functions
- 9 of mediation and conciliation have been unable to bring
- the parties to agreement and have been unable to induce

1	(b) The provisions of section 11 of the National Labor
2	Relations Act (relating to the investigatory powers of the
3	National Labor Relations Board) shall be applicable with
4	respect to any board appointed under this section, and its
5	members and agents, and with respect to the exercise of
6	their functions, in the same manner that such provisions
7	are applicable with respect to the National Labor Relations
8	Board and the powers vested in it by sections 9 and 10 of
9	the National Labor Relations Act.
0	(c) Any board appointed under this section may pre-
1	scribe or adopt such rules and regulations as it deems neces-
2	sary to govern its procedures and the exercise of its functions.
3	Each of the members of such board shall receive compen-
4	sation at such rate, not exceeding $100 a day, as may be
.5	fixed by the President, and shall receive his necessary
6	travel and other expenses incurred in connection with the
7	work of the board. Such compensation and expenses shall
8	be paid by the Secretary of Labor.
9	(d) The Secretary of Labor shall provide for the board
0	such stenographic, clerical, and other assistants and such
1	facilities, services, and supplies as may be necessary to
2	enable the board to perform its functions. When a board
3	appointed under this section has made its report, the board
4	shall be dissolved and its records shall be transferred to
5	the Secretary of Labor.
