Dear Miss Ambrose:

Your letter of a few weeks ago has come to my attention upon my return to my office.

I appreciate very much having your views on the labor situation and the subject of the establishment of a school of diplomacy. It is from such letters that I am enabled to know the thinking of my people and how they would like to have me vote on various issues as they arise.

With best wishes, I am

Sincerely yours,

George B. Schwabe, M.C.

Dear Mr. Schwabe - Congressman:

Responding to Pres. Truman's plea to write our representatives regarding present national problems, I write to ask that "you help enact laws which will allow anyone to work whom so desires."

Surely it is against basic American principles that any organization should have the right to strangle the nation into such ~~a~~ economic and social disorder as now prevails.

2) Another obvious, urgent need of our nation is the establishment by the Government of a school of diplomacy where men can be trained for international diplomatic service. A tax-payer and voter,
Very truly yours,
Alma L. Ambrose
