1

January 16, 1946

The Hominy Ministerial Alliance 201 South Pettit Hominy, Oklahoma

Attention: Mr. C. Willis Schnelle, Secretary

Your communication of January 11th relating to the unfortunate strike situation has been received in the absence unfortunate strike situation has been received in the absence of Congressman Schwabe, who is away from Washington for a few of Congressman Schwabe, who is away from Washington for a few of Congressman Schwabe, who is away from Washington for a few of Congressman Schwabe, who is away from Washington for a few of Congressman Schwabe, who is away from Washington for a few of Congressman Schwabe, who is away from Washington for a few of Congressman Schwabe, who is away from Washington for a few of Congressman Schwabe, who is away from Washington for a few of Congressman Schwabe, who is away from Washington for a few of Congressman Schwabe, who is away from Washington for a few of Congressman Schwabe, who is away from Washington for a few of Congressman Schwabe, who is away from Washington for a few of Congressman Schwabe, who is away from Washington for a few of Congressman Schwabe, who is away from Washington for a few of Congressman Schwabe, who is away from Washington for a few of Congressman Schwabe, who is away from Washington for a few of Congressman Schwabe, who is away from Washington for a few of Congressman Schwabe, who is away from Washington for a few of Congressman Schwabe, who is away from Washington for a few of Congressman Schwabe, who is away from Washington for a few of Congressman Schwabe, who is away from Washington for a few of Congressman Schwabe, who is away from Washington for a few of Congressman Schwabe, who is away from Washington for a few of Congressman Schwabe, who is away from Washington for a few of Congressman Schwabe, who is away from Washington for a few of Congressman Schwabe, who is away from Washington for a few of Congressman Schwabe, who is a way from Washington for a few of Congressman Schwabe, who is a way from Washington for a few of Congressman Schwabe, who is a way from Washington for a few of Congressman Schwabe, who is a way from Washington for a few of Cong

Some weeks before the President made his suggestion that people write their Congressmen on the questions of the day, Congressman Schwabe decided to try to obtain the views of as many of the people of his District as possible, in order to more truly represent them when Congress reconvenes in January. He truly represent them when Congress addressed to the rural and mailed forty thousand questionnaires addressed to the rural and mailed forty thousand questionnaires addressed to the rural and local boxholders at every post office in the ten counties of his local boxholders at every post office in the ten counties of his listrict, and then made an arduous trip, stopping at every county seat and post office in the District so that all who wished to do seat and post office in the District so that all who wished to do

Thousands of people answered the questionnaire, and hundreds went to the county seats and post offices and personally talked with Mr. Schwabe. In spite of all this effort, there are talked with Mr. Schwabe. In spite of all this effort, there are talked with Mr. Schwabe. In spite of all this effort, there are talked with Mr. Schwabe. In spite of all this effort, there are talked with Mr. Schwabe. In spite of all this effort, there are talked with Mr. Schwabe. In spite of all this effort, there are talked with Mr. Schwabe. In spite of all this effort, there are talked with Mr. Schwabe. In spite of all this effort, there are talked with Mr. Schwabe. In spite of all this effort, there are talked with Mr. Schwabe. In spite of all this effort, there are talked with Mr. Schwabe. In spite of all this effort, there are talked with Mr. Schwabe. In spite of all this effort, there are talked with Mr. Schwabe. In spite of all this effort, there are talked with Mr. Schwabe. In spite of all this effort, there are talked with Mr. Schwabe. In spite of all this effort, there are talked with Mr. Schwabe. In spite of all this effort, there are talked with Mr. Schwabe. In spite of all this effort, there are talked with Mr. Schwabe. In spite of all this effort, there are talked with Mr. Schwabe. In spite of all this effort, there are talked with Mr. Schwabe. In spite of all this effort, there are talked with Mr. Schwabe. In spite of all this effort, there are talked with Mr. Schwabe. In spite of all this effort, there are talked with Mr. Schwabe. In spite of all this effort, there are talked with Mr. Schwabe. In spite of all this effort, there are talked with Mr. Schwabe. In spite of all this effort, there are talked with Mr. Schwabe. In spite of all this effort, there are talked with Mr. Schwabe. In spite of all this effort, there are talked with Mr. Schwabe. In spite of all this effort, the talked with Mr. Schwabe. In spite of all this effort, there are talked with Mr. Schwabe. In spite of all this effort, the talked with Mr. Schw

Thanking you for your letter, and assuring you of the Congressman's desire to render every possible service to the people of Oklahoma and the Nation at large, I am

Sincerely yours,

C. Willis Schnelle, Minister Residence 201 South Pettit Hominy, Oklahoma

January 11, 1946

Hon. George B. Swabe House Office Building, Washington, D. C.

Dear Congressman Swabe:

In behalf of our Hominy Ministerial Alliance I am writing the unanimous opinion of our ministers concerning the many strikes which are being called.

We urge you, as a private citizen and honorable congressman to throw your support in favor of some anti-strike measure preferably an anti-strike law.

Our great concern is for the impending economic crisis which, through its natural course of events, could lead to internal civil strife.

In the interest of our American employer and employee we urge your support of the above suggestion.

In the interest of a happy America,

The Hominy Ministerial Alliance, C. Willis Schnelle, Secretary.