Letter

May 15, 1946

Mr. Louis Selby
51st & Lewis Avenue
Tulsa, Oklahoma

Dear Friend:

I have your letter of May 10th complaining about John L. Lewis and putting the responsibility upon the President and the Congress.

In my humble opinion, there are plenty of laws now on the statute books enabling the President to handle the situation, if he had the courage to do so. While Congress enacts the laws, it is up to the executive branch of government to enforce them.

I voted for the Case Bill, and shall vote for any other bill which places the interests of the general public above those of any minority group.

Thanking you for your interest, and with all good wishes, I am

Sincerely yours,

George B. Schwabe, M.C.

Congressman George B. Schwabe
Congress of the United States
Washington, D. C.

Dear Sir:

When is Congress going to pass some legislation to control John L. Lewis? It seems as if something ought to be done quick, and you and the President are the only ones who can do it.

The state of affairs of this country is critical. In fact, if something isn't done soon to control this man, this country will no longer be a democracy.
