Mr. William D. Moorner, President
Moorlane Company & Braden Steel Corporation
Tulsa, Oklahoma

Dear Friend:

I have your wire of yesterday requesting me to urge the President to sign the Case Bill, and if vetoed by the President to do what I can to muster strength enough in Congress to pass the bill over the President's veto.

In the first place, I do not think my urging the President would be effective, for he knows my stand and apparently is diametrically opposed to the provisions of the Case Bill.

The rumor here today is that he will veto the Case Bill and that he is now working on his veto.

I do not know what the attitude of Congress will be, but I know many who expressed themselves as being in favor of voting to over-ride such a veto. My guess is that the Administration will cover enough votes against over-riding the veto to defeat such an attempt. I think you know my position and that I will go on down the line for the Case Bill, or any other bill of that kind, and would be delighted to vote for even a stronger measure to curb these labor racketeers. The Administration has pursued a policy of bossism entirely too long, and Mr. Truman seems to be falling into the same error that was made by his predecessor, Mr. Roosevelt followed.

Thanking you for your interest and assuring you of my desire to serve the people of my District at all times, I beg to remain

Sincerely yours,

George B. Schwabe, M.C.
