Dear Mrs. Brown:

I have your letter of the 26th expressing your interest in the British Loan and requesting me to vote for it when it comes before us in Congress.

I don't know at this time just when, if ever, this measure will be voted on in the House. There is a wide variance of opinion on this subject among Congressmen, and among the people of this Nation. Many of the best minds think we should make the loan, and at least as many think we should not.

I thank you for calling the matter to my attention and I assure you that I shall be guided by what I consider the best interests of the people of the United States and the wishes of my constituents.

Sincerely yours,

George B. Schwabe, M.C.

Dear Mr. Schwabe:

I wish to express my favor of the loan to Britain. It seems to me that for the protection of world trade, and our future prosperity and peace it is necessary to make this loan.

I am asking you, as one of your constituents, to vote for this loan when it is presented on the floor.

Sincerely,

Jane Brown
