Dear Mr. Coryell:

I am just in receipt of your undated letter postmarked Christobal, Canal Zone, March 6th, relative to H. R. 2346, the bill that frequently is referred to as the Merchant Marine Bill of Rights.

I am not familiar with the provisions of this bill and am sending you a printed copy of same. So far this bill has not reached the Floor of the House and I am not on the Committee on Merchant Marine and Fisheries to which the Bill is referred. I understand that the Committee is still considering the bill and I cannot predict when their study will be completed nor what their report will be.

Thanking you for writing me about this and for your views on the subject, I am

Sincerely yours,

George B. Schwabe, M. C.

(Sender's complete address above)

Dear Sir:

The purpose of this letter is to ask your full support for the Seamen Bill of rights (H.R. 2346). The benefits that are in this Bill will enable us merchant Seamen to take their rightful place in the American way of life.

We are rightfully proud of our record and do deserve these rights.

I hope you will study this Bill carefully and give me a favorable answer as soon as possible.

Sincerely, Melvin Coryell
