COMMITTEE ON MILITARY AFFAIRS

April 23, 1945

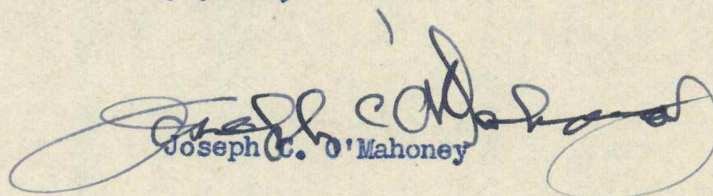

Honorable George B. Schwabe,
House of Representatives,
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Congressman Schwabe:

In going over the remaining stock of Temporary National Economic Committee publications which were left with me for distribution following termination of the committee in 1941, I have found some copies of Monograph 31, PATENTS AND FREE ENTERPRISE, written by Walton Hamilton, Professor of Law at Yale University. It occurred to me that you, as a member of the House Patents Committee, might want to have a copy of this monograph in your library.

With best wishes,

Sincerely yours,

Joseph C. O'Mahoney
